Winnie the Pooh Celebration

We decided on something a little different for the January 2024 census day.

Coinciding with National Winnie the Pooh Day, January 18th commemorates author A.A. Milne's birthday in 1882. A.A. Milne had no idea when he turned his little boy Christopher Robin's favourite toy into a children's character, that he would become one of the most well-loved and recognised children's characters in the world.

Joining us for lunch today not only provides opportunity to enjoy some yummy, Winnie the Pooh and Friends menu options, it also boosts funding for your child's school.

TACO TUESDAY

Taco Tuesday has become a regular feature on our termly menu plan following a suggestion from members of the academy council, in one of our schools.

Your feedback matters to us and helps us give you our best. Do you have feedback or ideas to share? Drop us a line on enquiries@idealschoolmeals.co.uk

THE BIG GARDEN BIRDWATCH

26TH JAN

Everyone can take part in the world's largest garden wildlife survey, at home, or at school. The Big Garden Birdwatch takes place over the last weekend of January every year. The results, along with those taken from surveys in schools, throughout this term, helps scientists form a snapshot of how birds are faring across the UK.

Our popular Birdwatch Brunch returns, followed by a fitting Shortbread Bird Biscuit.
